

Robert Gilstrap

Robert Gilstrap is a Georgia Licensed Real Estate Broker and owner of Title One Realty and Title One Management.

After having served in the US Air Force; he started several companies in the telecommunications industry while simultaneously investing in real estate. Robert has been an active landlord and investor for over 25 years; he is active in several local investor groups and has taught on numerous topics involving Georgia Landlord Tenant Law, what it takes to be a landlord in Georgia, asset protection, entity structuring, using land trusts and Personal Property Trusts, and many more. Robert is an active member of the National Association of Residential Property Managers "NARPM" at both the local and national level. Robert has served on the Board of Directors for the Atlanta Chapter since 2011 and served as President of the Atlanta chapter in 2014.